ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

The water in Lake Champlain is scarcely a foot above low water mark.

Snow on Mount Mansfield Sunday morning indicates that winter is due in six weeks.

The forest fire on the mountain near Bristol was gotten under control, showing aiding much in subduing the flames.

Little Gerald Covel of Melndoe Falls, who was seriously burned by turning a lighted lamp over onto himself, died last week.

Rev. Thomas Stratton, for two and one-half years pastor of the Universalist church at Lyndonville, has resigned, to take effect the first of November.

Rev. T. C. Brewster read his resignation at the Baptist church at Jamaica, having had a call to a church in Massachusetts, but the church unanimously requested him to withdraw his resignation.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Vermont state board of pharmacy will be held at the State House at Montpelier, Tuesday, October 14, at 10 a. m. to examine candidates desiring registration in pharmacy and to contract any other business which may properly come before them at that time.

When the potatoes on the farm of N. P. Lasele in St. Albans were being dug, a peculiar freak in the vegetable nature line was uncovered, six Irish Cobbler potatoes growing together. They are perfectly formed and very smooth, four being about the size of goose eggs. The other two were smaller and smaller. They were the only potatoes in the hill.

Raymond Hunt of Newark, while hunting duck near a pond in Charleston, came in contact with a bob cat. He shot and missed, when the animal sprang at him. He shot again and killed the animal. The cat is five feet long and weighs 20 pounds. Hunt will have the cat mounted.

Four workmen at the gravel pit of the state road in Passumpsic were buried alive when the bank gave away last week. Peter Rash was completely buried and if help had not been near life would have been extinct. His arm was badly bruised and he was quite lamed up. Al Furlford received injuries in his leg, while Ben Gilmard and Guy Webber were badly lamed.

Peter Blair of Vergennes will be 90 years old next December 14 and his wife is 89 years. They have been married about 70 years. Mr. Blair's father lived to be 100 years old, his grandfather 106, and his great-grandfather 113 years. Mr. and Mrs. Blair have been the parents of 10 children, five of whom are now living, the oldest of whom is 62 years old. Mr. Blair is active and enjoys fairly good health.

Thomas Ryan of Brattleboro has recovered a pocket piece lost by his son 12 years ago, through the medium of the local paper, which published an item recently to the effect that a peculiar coin dated 1875 and about the size of a silver dollar had been dug up by a workman. The coin was bought of the workman by one of the engineers. Mr. Ryan carried the coin for years and one day allowed his son to take it. That was 12 years ago, and the youngster reported that he had lost it.

Rutland farmers say that the apple crop in that part of Vermont this year, and probably in the entire state, will be the smallest in many years because of the spring frosts. The yield of pears and plums, which are considered secondary crops in Vermont, are better than usual. Because of the May frost, the dry summer, and the early date of the first fall frost, September 10, farmers are generally discouraged with the crop outlook, hay only, and that only in some sections, being good.

Mrs. James Walker was held up while on her way along the streets of St. Johnsbury Tuesday evening, and a bag containing $11.50 was snatched from her hand. She was accompanied by her daughter and both put up a good fight, but the man overpowered them and escaped with the money. The hold-up occurred in a dark place. During the fight Miss Emma Blako, who tended a fruit stand, was taking the money home for safe keeping, when two men sprang upon her as she was crossing a bridge, and attempted to wrest the bag from her.

Confidence in Savings Banks

Everybody knows that the most valuable asset which a Savings Bank has is public confidence in its safety and soundness.

Without it, its growth is as certainly stunted as is a field of grass on worn-out soil, without fertilizer. Confidence is the fertilizer which promotes the growth of any Savings Bank, just as much as phosphates promote plant growth.

Attention is called to the following statement showing the growth of deposits in the Lamotte County Savings Bank and Trust Company of Hyde Park, Vermont:—

They were on
Jan. 1, 1890..... $89,973.14
Jan. 1, 1896..... 387,538.50
Jan. 1, 1902..... 614,326.43
Jan. 1, 1908..... 1,065,542.57
July 1, 1913..... 2,523,922.73

Note the deposits of 1902 have been multiplied by four, while the deposits July 1, 1913, are about two and one-half times what they were January 1, 1908.

The growth during the year ending June 30, 1913, was $298,348.36, or nearly one thousand dollars for each working day in the year. To state it exactly, the deposits exceeded the withdrawals for each day in the year—not counting Sundays and holidays—by an average of $971.81 per day.

On the 30th day of June, 1913, the deposits passed the two and one-half million dollar mark.

Can there be any better evidence than this of the practical unlimited public confidence in the sound judgment and cautious conservatism of the men who govern, direct and manage the affairs of the Hyde Park Savings Bank?

This Bank pays four per cent. interest, compounded twice each year, and pays all taxes.

A statement of the assets and mailed to anyone on request of the President, Carroll S. Page, or the Treasurer, Frank M. Culver, Hyde Park, Vermont.

They were frightened away, however, by the approach of people.

Mrs. Seth Allard of Sheffield has just found her brother, John Carey, for whom she has searched many years, in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Quincy, Ill. When a lad of 17, Carey ran away from home to join the army, his father having refused his permission, and at the close of the war he decided to remain east, instead of returning to the parental home in Mendota, Ill. Ill health overtook him and his family stopped, but his sister had kept up a steady search for him. When found, Mr. Carey was hardly able to talk with her, being afflicted with paralysis. Mrs. Allard is a plucky Vermont woman, who has spared neither time nor expense in locating her brother. She was an eye witness to the battle of Lexington, Mo., Sept. 18-21, 1861, as her parents lived in that place, and she climbed a nearby hill to see the battle. She was also in New York City at the time of Lincoln's assassination, and well remembers the excitement caused by that incident.

ESTATE OF PHILLIP SANDERSON PRIOR.
State of Vermont, District of Washington, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Washington: To all persons interested in the estate of Phillip Sanderson Prior, late of the city of Barre, in said district, deceased.

WHEREAS, application hath been made to this court in writing, by the administrator with will annexed, praying for leave and authority to sell all of real estate of said deceased, to wit, situated in the city of Barre, in said district, including the homestead right and the interest of the widow therein, representing to said court that it would be beneficial to the heirs and persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money; and bringing into court the account and appropriation in writing, of all the heirs to said estate residing in this state, and setting forth the situation of the real estate.

WHEREFORE, the said court appointed and assigned the 8th day of October, 1913, at the probate office in Montpelier, in said district, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively, in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, all of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.

AND WHEREAS, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place assigned, and there in said court to make your objections to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

Given under my hand at Montpelier, in said district, this 18th day of September, 1913.
FRANK J. MARTIN, Judge.
